

PUT ON YOUR SUNDAY CLOTHES

from HELLO, DOLLY!

Music and Lyric by JERRY HERMAN

Moderately

mf

Put on your Sun - day clothes when you feel down and out, _____ strut down the street and have your pic - ture took. _____

Eb

Eb6

Dressed like a dream, your spir - its seem to turn a - bout, —

Cm

Gm

— that Sun - day shine — is a

Ab

Gm

cer - tain sign — that you feel as fine — as you

Fm7

Bb7

Eb

look. Be - neath your { par - a - sol, the world is bow - ler brim, the world's a

Ebmaj7

Eb

all sim - a ple smile _____ that makes you feel brand - sim - a ple song, _____ a love - ly lilt that

Eb6

Gm7

C7#5

C7

new down to your toes. _____ Get makes you tilt your nose. _____ Get

Fm

G7

out your feath - ers, your pat - ent leath - ers, your out your slick - ers, your flan - nel knick - ers, your

Cm

F7

Abm6

beads and buck - les and bows, for in there's red sus - pend - ers and hose, in your

1

$E\flat$ $E\flat+$ $Fm7$ $B\flat9$ $E\flat$

no blue Mon - day in your Sun - day clothes.

2

$E\flat$ $E\flat+$

new straw hat and your

Cm $F7$ $Fm7$

silk cra - vat, there'll be no blue Mon - day

$B\flat9$ $E\flat$

in your Sun - day clothes. _____